Plaintiff ECHO DEVELOPMENT<sup>1</sup> (“Echo” or “Plaintiff”) by and through its undersigned counsel, brings this Complaint against Defendants, the Individuals, Partnerships, and Unincorporated Associations Identified on Schedule “A” hereto (collectively “Defendants”), who are promoting, manufacturing, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods infringing, bearing or using counterfeits and confusingly similar imitations of Plaintiff’s intellectual property within <sup>1</sup> Since it is unknown when Plaintiff’s forthcoming Ex Parte Motion for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, and Order Restraining Transfer of Assets will be ruled on, Plaintiff’s name has been removed to prevent Defendants from getting advanced notice. Copyright piracy and infringement lawsuits like this one are closely monitored by Chinese defendants on websites like www.sellerdefense.cn, social media (QQ, WeChat, etc.), and elsewhere on the internet. The www.sellerdefense.cn website and others warn infringers specifically of product types, brands, law firms filing cases, and other information necessary for defendants, like those named in this case, to evade Plaintiff’s anti-pirating and anti-counterfeiting efforts and hide their ill-gotten gains. Pursuant to the Court’s order on Plaintiff’s forthcoming Motion to Seal Certain Documents Containing Identifying Information About the Defendants, Plaintiff will file an Unredacted Complaint which identifies Plaintiff’s copyrights and provides additional information and allegations once the record is unsealed.

<sup>1</sup> Schedule “A” to this Complaint will be filed under seal after this Honorable Court rules on Plaintiff’s Motion to Seal, which will be submitted as soon as the case is opened, and the judge is assigned.

this district through various Internet based e-commerce stores using the seller identities as set forth on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Seller IDs”), and in support of its claims, alleges as follows:

SUMMARY OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff ECHO brings this action for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement, false designation of origin, common law unfair competition, and common law trademark infringement pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, and 1125(a), The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), and the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (“FDUPTA”) (Fla. Stat. §§ 501.201-.213).

2. Plaintiff ECHO brings this action for willful copyright infringement and piracy committed for purposes of commercial advantage or private financial gain by the reproduction or distribution, including by electronic means, of one or more copies of copyrighted works in violation of 17 U.S.C. §501, and for all the remedies available under the Copyright Act 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

3. Plaintiff ECHO brings this action for willful patent infringement under 35 U.S.C. § 271 committed in violation of the Plaintiff's exclusive rights to make, use, offer to sell, or sell Plaintiff's patented invention, within the United States or for importation into the United States any patented invention during the term of the patent-in-suit, and for all the remedies available under 35 U.S.C. §§ 283, 284, and 285.

SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION

6. This court also has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 17 U.S.C. § 301.

7. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 over the state law claims because those claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy.

PERSONAL JURISDICTION

8. Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district because they purposefully direct their activities toward and conduct business with consumers throughout the United States, including within the state of Florida and this district, through at least the internet-based e-commerce stores accessible in Florida and operating under their Seller IDs.

9. Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district because their illegal activities directed towards the state of Florida cause Plaintiff injury in Florida, and Plaintiff's claims arise out of those activities.

10. Alternatively, Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) because (i) Defendants are not subject to jurisdiction in any state's court of general jurisdiction; and (ii) exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

12. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 since Defendants are, upon information and belief, aliens who are engaged in infringing activities and causing harm

DEFENDANTS

57. Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

58. Defendants are individuals and/or business entities of unknown makeup, each of whom, upon information and belief, either reside and/or operate in foreign jurisdictions, redistribute products from the same or similar sources in those locations, and/or ship their goods from the same or similar sources in those locations to shipping and fulfillment centers within the United States to redistribute their products from those locations.

59. Defendants are engaged in business in Florida but have not appointed an agent for service of process.

60. Upon information and belief, Defendants have registered, established, or purchased, and maintained their Seller IDs.

61. Defendants target their business activities toward consumers throughout the United States, including within this district, through the simultaneous operation of commercial Internet based e-commerce stores via the Internet marketplace websites under the Seller IDs.

62. Defendants are the past and present controlling forces behind the sale of products bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights as described herein operating and using at least the Seller IDs.

63. Defendants directly engage in unfair competition with Plaintiff by advertising, offering for sale, and selling goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of

Plaintiff's intellectual property rights to consumers within the United States and this district through Internet based e-commerce stores using, at least, the Seller IDs and additional names, websites, or seller identification aliases not yet known to Plaintiff.

64. Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their illegal activities towards consumers in the state of Florida through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of infringing and counterfeits goods into the State.

65. Upon information and belief, Defendants may have engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the registration of the Seller IDs by providing false and/or misleading information to the Internet based e-commerce platforms or domain registrar where they offer to sell and/or sell during the registration or maintenance process related to their respective Seller IDs.

66. Upon information and belief, many Defendants registered and maintained their Seller IDs for the sole purpose of engaging in illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities.

67. Upon information and belief, Defendants will likely continue to register or acquire new seller identification aliases for the purpose of selling and offering for sale infringements of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

68. Defendants use their Internet-based businesses to infringe the intellectual property rights of Plaintiff and others.

69. Defendants' business names, i.e., the Seller ID's, associated payment accounts, and any other alias seller identification names or e-commerce stores used in connection with the sale of counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights are essential components of Defendants' online activities, and are one of the means by which Defendants further their counterfeiting and infringement scheme and cause harm to Plaintiff.

70. Some of the Defendants use individual seller store names and listing title containing the [REDACTED] Mark, and these store names and listing titles are indexed on search engines and compete directly with Plaintiff for space in search results.

71. The appearance of Defendants' individual seller stores in search engine results undermines Plaintiff's efforts to educate consumers about the value of products sold under the [REDACTED] Mark.

72. Defendants are using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights to drive Internet consumer traffic to their e-commerce stores operating under the Seller ID's, thereby increasing the value of the Seller ID's and decreasing the size and value of Plaintiff's legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Plaintiff's expense.

73. Defendants, through the sale and offer to sell counterfeit and infringing products, are directly, and unfairly, competing with Plaintiff's economic interests in the state of Florida and causing Plaintiff harm and damage within this jurisdiction.

74. The natural and intended by product of Defendants' actions, is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with Plaintiff's intellectual property rights and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which it operates.

75. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants had actual or constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights, including Plaintiff's exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property rights.

JOINDER OF DEFENDANTS IN THIS ACTION IS PROPER

76. Defendants are the individuals, partnerships, and unincorporated associations set forth on Schedule "A" hereto.

77. Defendants are promoting, selling, offering for sale, and distributing goods infringing, bearing and/or using counterfeits, infringements, and confusingly similar imitations of Plaintiff's intellectual property within this district.

78. Joinder of all Defendants is permissible based on the permissive party joinder rule of Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2) that permits the joinder of persons in an action as Defendants where any right to relief is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; and any question of law or fact common to all Defendants will arise in the action.

79. Joinder of the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" attached hereto is permitted because Plaintiff asserts rights to relief against these Defendants jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; and common questions of law or fact will arise in the action.

80. Joinder of the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" attached hereto serves the interests of convenience and judicial economy, which will lead to a just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution for Plaintiff, Defendants, and this Court.

81. Joinder of the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" attached hereto will not create any unnecessary delay nor will it prejudice any party. On the other hand, severance is likely to cause delays and prejudice Plaintiff and Defendants alike.

82. Joinder of the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" is procedural only and does not affect the substantive rights of any Defendant listed on Schedule "A" hereto.

83. This Court has jurisdiction over the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" hereto. Venue is proper in this Court for this dispute involving the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" hereto.

84. Plaintiff's claims against the multiple Defendants listed in Schedule "A" are all transactionally related.

85. Plaintiff is claiming willful counterfeiting, copyright infringement, and patent infringement against Defendants of Plaintiff's intellectual property.

86. The actions of all Defendants cause indivisible harm to Plaintiff by Defendants' combined actions engaging in similar counterfeiting and infringing conduct when each is compared to the others.

87. All Defendants' actions are logically related. All Defendants are all engaging in the same systematic approach of establishing online storefronts to redistribute illegal products from the same or similar sources while maintaining financial accounts that the Defendants can easily conceal to avoid any real liability for their actions.

88. All Defendants are located in foreign jurisdictions, mostly China.

89. All Defendants undertake efforts to conceal their true identities from Plaintiff, in order to avoid detection for their illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities.

90. All Defendants have the same or closely related sources for their infringing products with some sourcing from the same upstream source and others sourcing from downstream sources who obtain counterfeit and infringing products from the same upstream sources.

91. All Defendants take advantage of a set of circumstances the anonymity and mass reach the internet affords to sell counterfeit and infringing goods across international borders and violate Plaintiff's patent rights with impunity.

92. All Defendants have registered their Seller IDs with one of two online platforms, Amazon and Walmart, for the purpose of engaging in counterfeiting and infringement.

93. In order to link the defendants to a common source, Plaintiff analyzed shared attributes across products, packaging, distribution patterns, and digital footprints. This involved cross-referencing physical, logistical, and digital evidence to uncover hidden connections in supply chains.

94. One of the key methodologies Plaintiff used in this process was product attribute analysis. This analysis revealed that all the defendants' products are made of [REDACTED].

95. Another key methodology was analysis of packaging and labeling. This analysis revealed that the packaging and labeling for all the products is substantially similar or identical.

96. Another key methodology was analysis of the defendants' e-commerce patterns. The defendants use the identical product photography/descriptions across seller accounts on the same two marketplaces. These defendants often design their online stores to appear as though they are selling genuine [REDACTED] Products while in fact selling infringing versions.

97. This multi-layered approach taken by Plaintiff establishes provable connections between seemingly disparate defendants.

98. For example, the overwhelming majority of Defendants who infringe the [REDACTED] Patent advertise the same identical infringing products (illustrated below) to advertise their inferior imitation products, indicating one common source of supply, manufacture or distribution.

Exemplary Infringing Products Sold on Defendant Internet Stores:

[REDACTED]

99. Many Defendants who are Amazon sellers and who infringe the [REDACTED] Patent advertise the same identical packaging for the infringing products (illustrated below) to advertise their inferior imitation products, indicating one common source of supply, manufacture or distribution.

Exemplary Product Packaging Shown on Defendant Internet Stores:

100. Many Defendants who are Walmart sellers and who infringe the [REDACTED] Patent advertise the same identical packaging for the infringing products (illustrated below) to advertise their inferior imitation products, indicating one common source of supply, manufacture or distribution.

Exemplary Product Packaging Shown on Defendant Internet Stores:

[REDACTED]

101. All Defendants use payment and financial accounts associated with their online storefronts or the online platforms where their online storefronts reside.

102. All Defendants use their payment and financial accounts to accept, receive, and deposit profits from their counterfeiting and infringing activities.

103. All Defendants can easily and quickly transfer or conceal their funds in their use payment and financial accounts to avoid detection and liability in the event that the Plaintiff's anti-counterfeiting and anti-pirating efforts are discovered, or Plaintiff obtains a monetary award.

104. All Defendants violated Plaintiff's intellectual property rights in the United States by the use of common or identical methods.

105. All Defendants understand that their ability to profit through anonymous internet stores is enhanced as their numbers increase, even though they may not all engage in direct communication or coordination.

106. Many of the Defendants are operating multiple internet storefronts and online marketplace seller accounts using different Seller IDs listed on Schedule “A”. As a result, there are more Seller IDs than there are Defendants, a fact that will emerge in discovery.

107. Defendants’ business names, i.e., the Seller ID’s, associated payment accounts, and any other alias seller identification names or e-commerce stores used in connection with the sale of products infringing the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent are essential components of Defendants’ online activities and are one of the means by which Defendants further their infringement and counterfeiting scheme and cause harm to Plaintiff.

108. By selling infringing products using the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and [REDACTED] Patent, Defendants drive Internet consumer traffic to their e-commerce stores operating under the Seller IDs, thereby increasing the value of the Seller IDs and decreasing the size and value of Plaintiff’s legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Plaintiff’s expense. Defendants’ e-commerce stores selling counterfeits and infringing goods using the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent appear more relevant and attractive to consumers searching for both Plaintiff’s goods and goods sold by Plaintiff’s competitors online.

109. Defendants, through the sale and offer to sell counterfeit and infringing products, are directly, and unfairly, competing with Plaintiff’s economic interests in the state of Florida and causing Plaintiff harm and damage within this jurisdiction.

110. The natural and intended by product of Defendants logically related actions is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with Plaintiff’s intellectual property rights and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which Plaintiff operates.

111. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants have actual or constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights, including Plaintiff's exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property rights.

DEFENDANTS' INFRINGING ACTIVITIES

112. Defendants are promoting, advertising, manufacturing, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale cheap copies of Plaintiff's patented products bearing or using the [REDACTED] Mark and/or the Copyrighted Works, that have substantially the same technical features as the [REDACTED] Patent, infringing Plaintiff's trademark, copyright, and patent rights (the "Infringing Goods") through at least the Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Seller IDs.

113. Defendants' Infringing Goods practice at least all elements of one or more claims of the [REDACTED] Patent. Attached as Exhibit 5<sup>6</sup> is an infringement opinion of a registered patent lawyer who reviewed the Defendants' Infringing Goods and determined that they infringe all elements of claim 1 of the [REDACTED] Patent.

114. The infringement opinion contained in Exhibit 5 contains a claim construction of claim 1 of the [REDACTED] Patent and a claim chart showing images of Defendants' infringing products. For additional reference, shown below is a comparison of Plaintiff's original products and a sample of Defendants' infringing products:

115. Specifically, Defendants are selling infringing products using the [REDACTED] Patent to initially attract online customers and drive them to Defendants' e-commerce stores operating under the Seller IDs.

116. Some of the Defendants are using identical or similar marks to the [REDACTED] Mark for different quality goods.

117. Plaintiff has used [REDACTED] Patent extensively and continuously before Defendants began offering infringing products that have substantially the same technical features as the [REDACTED] Patent.

118. Plaintiff has used the [REDACTED] Mark and Copyrighted Works extensively and continuously before Defendants began offering counterfeits, infringements, and confusingly similar imitations of Plaintiff's merchandise.

119. Upon information and belief, Defendants' Infringing Goods are of a quality substantially different than that of Plaintiff's genuine goods with the [REDACTED] Mark and the [REDACTED] Patent.

120. Defendants are actively using, promoting and otherwise advertising, distributing, manufacturing, selling and/or offering for sale substantial quantities of their Infringing Goods with the knowledge and intent that such goods will be mistaken for the genuine high-quality goods offered for sale by Plaintiff, despite Defendants' knowledge that they are without authority to use the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, or the [REDACTED] Patent.

121. The net effect of Defendants' actions is likely to cause confusion of consumers, at the time of initial interest, sale, and in the post-sale setting, who will believe all of Defendants' goods offered for sale on Defendants' e-commerce stores are genuine goods originating from, associated with, and approved by Plaintiff.

122. Defendants advertise their e-commerce stores, including their Infringing Goods offered for sale, to the consuming public via e-commerce stores on at least one Internet marketplace website operating under, at least, the Seller IDs.

123. In so advertising their stores and products, Defendants improperly and unlawfully use the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent without Plaintiff's permission.

124. As part of their overall infringement and counterfeiting scheme, most Defendants are, upon information and belief, concurrently employing and benefitting from substantially similar, advertising and marketing strategies based in large measure upon an illegal use of the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent.

125. Some of the Defendants are using counterfeits and infringements of the [REDACTED] Mark in order to make their e-commerce stores selling illegal goods appear more relevant and attractive to consumers searching for both Plaintiff's goods and goods sold by Plaintiff's competitors online.

126. By their actions, Defendants are contributing to the creation and maintenance of an illegal marketplace operating in parallel to the legitimate marketplace for Plaintiff's genuine goods.

127. Defendants are causing individual, concurrent and indivisible harm to Plaintiff and the consuming public by (i) depriving Plaintiff and other third parties of their right to fairly compete for space within search engine results and reducing the visibility of Plaintiff's genuine goods on the World Wide Web, (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value of the goodwill associated with Plaintiff's business and its intellectual property assets, and (iii) increasing Plaintiff's overall cost to market its goods and educate consumers via the Internet.

128. Defendants are concurrently conducting and targeting their infringing counterfeiting and infringing activities toward consumers and likely causing unified harm within this district and elsewhere throughout the United States.

129. As a result, Defendants are defrauding Plaintiff and the consuming public for Defendants' own benefit.

130. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants in this action had full knowledge of Plaintiff's ownership of the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent, including its exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property and the goodwill associated therewith.

131. Defendants' use of the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent, including the promotion and advertisement, manufacturing, distribution, sale and offering for sale of their Infringing Goods, is without Plaintiff's consent or authorization.

132. Defendants are engaging in the above-described illegal infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Plaintiff's patent rights for the purpose of trading on Plaintiff's goodwill and reputation.

133. If Defendants' intentional infringing and counterfeiting activities are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined by this Court, Plaintiff and the consuming public will continue to be harmed.

134. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause confusion, deception, and mistake in the minds of consumers before, during and after the time of purchase.

135. Defendants' wrongful conduct is likely to create a false impression and deceive customers, the public, and the trade into believing there is a connection or association between Plaintiff's genuine goods and Defendants' Infringing Goods, which there is not.

136. Defendants' payment and financial accounts, including but not limited to those specifically set forth on Schedule "A", are being used by Defendants to accept, receive, and deposit profits from Defendants' counterfeiting and infringing activities connected to their Seller IDs and any other alias, e-commerce stores, or seller identification names being used and/or controlled by them.

137. Defendants are likely to transfer or secret their assets to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Plaintiff.

138. Plaintiff is suffering irreparable injury and has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' unauthorized and infringing activities and its wrongful use of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights.

139. If Defendants' counterfeiting, infringing, and unfairly competitive activities are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined by this Court, Plaintiff and the consuming public will continue to be harmed.

140. The harm and damages sustained by Plaintiff have been directly and proximately caused by Defendants' wrongful use, advertisement, promotion, manufacturing, distribution, offers to sell, and sale of their Infringing Goods using the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent.

141. Defendants have sold their counterfeit and infringing products in competition directly with Plaintiff's genuine products.

142. Plaintiff should not have any competition from Defendants because Plaintiff never authorized Defendants to use Plaintiff's [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, or the [REDACTED] Patent.

143. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

144. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause and, are actually causing, confusion, mistake and deception among members of the trade and the general consuming public as to the origin and quality of Defendants' Infringing Goods using without authorization the [REDACTED] Mark, the Copyrighted Works, and the [REDACTED] Patent.

145. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and is suffering damages and irreparable injury as a result of Defendants' infringing actions.

COUNT I – TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

146. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 145 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

147. This is an action for trademark counterfeiting and infringement against Defendants based on their use of counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of the [REDACTED] Mark in commerce in connection with the promotion, advertisement, distribution, offering for sale and sale of the Infringing Goods.

148. Defendants are promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale, and distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and/or infringements of the [REDACTED] Mark.
